

Look FCC

I for one am truly upset that the FCC is considering limiting companies like XM radio from providing a service - paid service for its listeners. We have a right to have weather and traffic along with other services on our XM radio.

You must reject the NAB's petition 04-160.

Respectfully,
Pamela Birch